

WHO WE ARE

▶ BACKGROUND

The East Aldine Civic Association was founded in 2023 by community advocate and organizer, Ruben A. Salazar. Board Members include both new and longtime members of the East Aldine community who each bring a constructive and beneficial viewpoint on community issues. The East Aldine Civic Association actively advocates for the community improvements to local infrastructure and other community enhancements projects.

♥ VALUES

Our Civic Association aims to enhance the quality of life for residents of all neighborhoods in the East Aldine area. We believe all residents have the right to live in a clean, safe, and thriving community. We value the diversity and distinction of our community amongst others and pride ourselves on community engagement.

🎯 GOALS

The East Aldine Civic Associations main goal is to provide residents with the tools to empower themselves to advocate for their community by providing access to resources and local government services. Our overall goal is to bring the necessary and long overdue improvements to East Aldine neighborhoods and communities including, but not limited to additional streetlights, new sidewalks, increased police presence, and increased nuisance abatement awareness and resolution.

WHAT WE DO

The East Aldine Civic Association works closely with many local government agencies, local non profits, and elected officials to advocate for neighborhood and community improvements. Some community partners include the East Aldine Management District, Harris County Precinct 2, Harris County Sheriffs Office, and Baker Ripley East Aldine.

PAST SUCCESS

Members of our organization have in the past successfully fought for numerous community enhancement projects which have resulted in the County & East Aldine District adding additional streetlights inside neighborhoods as well as sidewalks.
